Re: Public Records Request

Dear Mr. Silberman:

I write in response to your public records act request dated May 2, 2018. After an audit of our internal databases concerning your request we have identified the following information:

- 1) For cases based on conduct which occurred from January 1, 2010 to present, the Attorney General's Office has prosecuted 26 cases which resulted in a conviction for a crime punishable under 18 V.S.A. § 4230. This number does not include any cases which may have been expunged and/or sealed.
- 2) For cases based on conduct which occurred from January 1, 2000 to December 31, 2009, the Attorney General's Office has prosecuted 52 cases which resulted in a conviction for a crime punishable under 18 V.S.A. § 4230. This number does not include any cases which may have been expunged and/or sealed.
- 3) For cases based on conduct which occurred from January 1, 1990 to December 31, 1999, the Attorney General's Office has prosecuted 1 case which resulted in a conviction for a crime punishable under 18 V.S.A. § 4230. This number does not include any cases which may have been expunged and/or sealed.

Sincerely,
