Mr. Segar:

I write simply to correct a date in my email below. We invoked our right to additional time to respond to your June 29th Request on July 2, not July 7, 2020.

Regards,
Jamie

Subject: Your Public Records Request

Mr. Segar:

On June 29, 2020, our Office received documents responsive to your Public Records Act request regarding Marlboro College. On July 7, 2020, our Office invoked its right to additional time to respond to your Request, with regard to these documents. Attached is an electronic file containing these documents, which have been redacted pursuant to 1 V.S.A. 317(c)(7).

Further, on July 8, 2020, our Office received documents from Marlboro College potentially responsive to your Request. Pursuant to 1 V.S.A 318(a)(5)(B), we invoke our right to additional time to respond to your Request due to the need to appropriately examine the records in question. We will further respond within ten business days of receipt of your request (which we consider to have been made on July 8, 2020).

If you feel information has been withheld or redacted in error, you may appeal to Deputy Attorney General Josh Diamond. Thank you for reaching out to our Office.

Regards,
Jamie
