Re: Public Records Request

Dear Ms. Edgar:

I write in further response to your follow-up Public Record Act request dated May 24, 2022, and related to emails of Molly Gray and a former intern of the Attorney General's Office. As previously explained, there are approximately 72 responsive email chains and almost each email requires redaction. Attached is the third portion of the rolling production. Records have been redacted or withheld on the following grounds:

- (1) Draft filings, draft investigatory reports, and correspondence regarding the same has been withheld and/or redacted as work product pursuant to 1 V.S.A. § 317(c)(1) and (4);
- (2) Personal information of individuals named in materials reviewed as part of the Attorney General's Office's investigation of the St. Joseph's Orphanage has been redacted pursuant to 1 V.S.A. § 317(c)(7) and 1 V.S.A. § 317(c)(5)(iii);
- (3) Materials received and reviewed as part of the Attorney General's Office investigation of the St. Joseph's Orphanage and correspondence about the same has been redacted as work product pursuant to 1 V.S.A. § 317(1) and (4) and as information that would disclose techniques and procedures for law enforcement investigations pursuant to 1 V.S.A. § 317(c)(5)(A)(v);
- (4) Personal contact information has been redacted pursuant to 1 V.S.A. § 317(c)(7);
- (5) Personal information regarding the former intern has been redacted pursuant to 1 V.S.A. § 317(c)(7).

If you feel records have been withheld in error, you may appeal to Acting Attorney General Joshua Diamond.

Sincerely,

Hey folks,

Is it okay with everyone if we swap Tuesday and Thursday for CRU and Crim next week? There's a Centennial Alliance meeting on Tuesday I'd like to attend, and Abbie has invited me to go on some investigative interviews with her on Thursday, which I would also like to do. In theory, this aligns really nicely.

Emily, I'm happy to swap Monday intake with you if you'd be amenable to that?

Subject: Last day

Hi all,

I've finally gotten around to ironing out the details with my externship professor, and my last official day will be December 12th, barring any weather-related issues between now and then!

Thank you for your patience while I figured this out.

All the best and again, happy Thanksgiving to you all.

Hi all,

Looking at my calendar it looks like I have some fun stuff coming up next week – but some of that stuff will require me swapping a couple days between divisions.

At this point, I'm thinking I will swap Tuesday and Thursday. Abbie, I'll email you separately about intake.

If anyone has any issue with this, please let me know!

Happy holiday and long weekend to you all.

Best,

Natacha
